Dive into summer in the city with Norwich Summer Sessions!

Presented by Norwich Business Improvement District (BID) and NORCA, we're thrilled to bring you the 11th year of this beloved festival of music and street theatre.

Join us for FREE entertainment Thursday evenings in July and Sundays in August.

Starting on Thursday 11th July, from 4pm to 8pm, unwind after a day of work or study with some fantastic performances. And for a leisurely Sunday vibe, swing by from Sunday 4th August between 12.30pm and 4.30pm, perfect for enjoying a delicious pub lunch, a cold drink in the glorious sunshine, or exploring the city's shops.

With four stages each week featuring an exciting and diverse line-up of music, and captivating street theatre performances (in collaboration with Covent Garden Entertainment), there's something for everyone to enjoy.

Remember to hold on to your map for each week's adventure. We can't wait to see you there!

Please keep in mind that last-minute changes may occur, due to influences outside our control. Stay updated by visiting our website or following us on social media.

Getting to Norwich

By Bus:

The bus is a great choice, with their fixed £2 rate during the summer – plus no need to worry about parking. So if you fancy a spontaneous drink in the sunshine you can!

By Car:

Several multi-storey and surface car parks are located within the city centre, and the nearest ones to the performances are Castle Quarter, Chantry Place, St Andrews, The Forum and John Lewis.

By Train:

Norwich's train station is just a short walk from the city centre – follow the Riverside Walk to stroll beside some of the city's most historic sites, starting from the beautiful Victorian train station itself.
